The State National Bank Makes Statement

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS:

The attitude of this Institution on the tobacco question having been misrepresented to the public through propaganda, we feel it is due you, our customers, who make up this Bank, that we state clearly our position. Let us state here that we can take care of your tobacco checks as well as any other bank.

We are interested in everything that affects you, because it in turn affects us. We consult with you, and have the reputation of taking care of your business needs in any emergency without dictating to you how you shall run your business. We think that you have enough good sense to do that. We have built up our resources so that we can take care of you during hard times as well as prosperous ones.

This Institution is a National Bank, operated under Government supervision, and in our dealings with our customers we treat them all alike without regard to their beliefs, creed or politics. To do otherwise would be unfair, as our depositors are made up of all classes.

In our business relations with you we are never influenced by any selfish or personal ambitions, and we want to see you get the top price for what you have to sell.

A bank that follows the straight marked line of banking—treating all alike, without favor to one over another—will never have any regrets, whatever the future may be.

Respectfully,

THE STATE NATIONAL BANK,

SLEUTHING USED BY LOCAL POLICEMEN IN GETTING MOONSHINE

Sixth Ward Grocer Arrested on the Charge of Selling Moonshine When Policeman Disguised as Farmer Makes Purchase.

Policemen Stewart and Carpenter resorted to a little detective work Friday evening in making a foundation for the arrest of G. W. Rudd, Sixth Ward grocer, on a charge of selling moonshine liquor. Rudd, who operates a grocery store in the old Bramble stand in East Second street, gave a cash bond of $100. Friday evening and was released for a hearing before Judge Harry C. Curran on next Tuesday afternoon.

Acting upon advice that Rudd had been selling moonshine liquor, Officer Harry Stewart donned overalls, an old hat and otherwise made himself appear a farmer. He entered Rudd's store and purchased a cigar. He then whispered to Rudd that he would like to get some liquor and after considerable persuasion Rudd consented to sell him a quart of liquor for $5, according to the policeman. Officer Stewart advised Rudd that he did not have that much money and finally Rudd agreed to sell him a half pint for $1.50, Officer Stewart says. After purchasing the half-pint, Officer Stewart left the Rudd store and was joined by Officer Carpenter, who was waiting on the outside. Both officers then entered the store and placed Rudd under arrest.

A full quart of moonshine liquor, which had not been opened, was found by the officers in the store.

POOLED TOBACCO TO BE RECEIVED HERE MONDAY

About One Hundred Wagon Loads of Pooled Tobacco to Be Delivered—Judge W. H. Rice First Farmer In With Crop.

The receipt of pooled tobacco will begin in Maysville Monday morning and it is expected that there will be quite a rush in the thottobacco district of poolers anxious to see how the tobacco that is delivered grades up and the advances the farmers will receive on their crops.

Former County Judge W. H. Rice is the first farmer to deliver his crop. He was scheduled for the first day Monday and to avoid the rush, he brought a large load in Friday night. Several other loads were delivered Saturday.

One hundred loads are registered for delivery Monday. Fifty of these loads will go to the Home warehouse, twenty-five to the Farms and another twenty-five to the Central. Deliveries will continue daily until the whole crop is in. It is understood that growers have registered for as much as two weeks in advance for deliveries.

Campbell's Creek Coal will be a warm friend to you at 20 cents per bushel. 24Jan2 GABLE BROS.

DAUGHTER OF FORMER LOCAL EDITOR DIES.

Miss Fanny Bierbower, of Fourth street, Saturday afternoon received a telegram announcing the death at her home in Chicago Saturday morning of Mrs. Charles E. Baker. Before her marriage, Mrs. Baker was Miss Sudie Stevenson, daughter of the late Colonel Thomas B. Stevenson, prominent Mayavillian and editor of the Mayville Eagle. She has many warm friends in Maysville who will be grieved to know of her death. Besides her husband, Mrs. Baker is survived by two sons.

PASSIONATE PILGRIMS IS GREAT PICTURE.

Quite number of local people saw the second local screening of "The Passionate Pilgrims" at the Gem theater Friday evening. This picture was splendidly acted and the story, written around an author, was a very interesting one.

SPECIAL CONCLAVE OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

There will be a special conclave of Maysville Commandery No. 10 Knights Templar at the asylum in the Masonic Temple Monday evening at 7 o'clock for the conference of the Red Cross and Knight of Malta degrees. Drill will follow the meeting.

UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Mr. Cleve Hughes has just returned from Muncie, Ind., where he was called by the illness of his daughter, Miss Mary Frank Hughes, former superintendent of the Maysville City Mission. On last Saturday Miss Hughes underwent an operation for appendicitis and her many local friends will be glad to know that she is doing satisfactorily.

OFFERS BIG PREMIUM FOR GERMANTOWN FAIR.

Mr. Walter Menz, of North Middleton, breeder of Duroc Jersey swine, has offered a premium of fifty dollars for the best litter of pigs sired by his famous hog, Fanny's Orion, Second, and shown at the 1922 meeting of the Germantown Fair.

YOUTHS' BIBLE DRILL FEATURE AT REVIVAL

Drill of Children Who Have Been Studying Bible Under Mrs. Tuckerman Features Meeting Friday.

"The Savior that you need," was the basis for a very earnest sermon by Rev. Muller at Christian church Friday evening. He used as his text parts of the eighth chapter of the gospel by Luke in which is recorded the raising from the dead of the daughter of Jarius. A supreme faith in the master physician and divine healer was all that was needed to restore this maiden to her parents and this faith they had in the "Savior they needed."

A large audience was present and Mrs. Tuckerman gave a fine illustration of her work with the boys and girls in Bible study drill. Their answers came quick and sharp and showed splendid training under competent and patient leadership. Youthful impressions are not easily or quickly forgotten and these young folks will not soon forget these great Bible facts so indelibly written on their memories. Four hundred is the goal for Bible school Sunday. Come and enjoy all these services as you surely will.

SMALL FIRE IN EAST THIRD STREET.

The fire department was called to the home of James Griffey, colored, in East Third street at about 9 o'clock Saturday morning to extinguish a small blaze on the shingle roof of the house. The damage done was very light.

ESCAPED PRISONER IS RETURNED TO JAIL.

Merry Deel Val, the Intransigent, was captured Saturday morning at 5:30 a. m. and is now in the custody of Sheriff Devore.

The Intransigents will elect Merry Deel Val, opposed to reconciliation with Italy, while the group favoring Gasparri, cardinal comelengio, would effect closer relations with the government.

If unable to elect Merry Deel Val, the Intransigents will throw their support to Cardinal Laurenti, who also opposes reconciliation with the state.

OUR POLICY:
To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

MR. BRYAN'S FUTURE.

The report that William Jennings Bryan contemplates running for United States Senator from Florida in competition with the incumbent, Park Trammell, is welcome. We did not know that Mr. Bryan finally and definitely had moved his voting residence from Nebraska to Florida. And we did not know that he still had political ambition. But evidently he has moved and evidently he is ambitious, which proves that he still is active and in good health.

And why should not Mr. Bryan be a man with a future? As statesmen go, he is not an old man. He was but thirty-six years old when he cast a metaphor at a Democratic national convention and it returned in the form of a Presidential nomination. He was but forty years old when he ran the second time, and but forty-eight when he ran in 1908. Keeping pace with the years, he is now only sixty-two. Among national figures, Mr. Bryan is only five years older than President Harding, two years older than Secretary Hughes, five years older than Senator Borah, three years older than Atlee Pomerene, and six years older than Hiram Johnson, all lively men of lively ambition. And compared with the real Elder Statesmen of the Senate, Mr. Bryan is a youth. Lodge and Kunte Nelson belong almost to another generation.

So why should not William Jennings Bryan aspire? Certainly he is too young and too eloquent to be confined to teaching Sunday school in the shade of the sheltering palm. Of course, there is his record as Secretary of State, when he preferred to sound his own voice in Chautauqua tents to the silent toil of the chancellery. But in the Senate his troubadoring would be permissible. More Senators do it on the side, and none of them so well as Mr. Bryan. And as between Mr. Bryan and Senator Trammell, we prefer Mr. Bryan. He plays the ukulele of eloquence far more dexterously.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

WHITLEY'S HORROR.

The State Journal knows well enough that such a crime as the killing of a young woman by a drunken crowd firing into a residence is by no means reflective of general social conditions in Whitley county and that the horrible crime on "Tiny Branch" is as horrifying in Whitley as it is in Frankfort.

There is a great deal of pathos in the spectacle of the poor father of the woman who was killed digging deep into his pockets and offering from his meager means a small reward for the apprehension and conviction of the murderers.

We trust the apprehension and the conviction of the murderers will take place. Breathitt county was not long in convicting the first of the murderers who attacked the jail in Jackson and ruthlessly shot down women. It is not unlikely that Williamsburg will make as clean a record as Jackson in making.—Frankfort State Journal.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Maysville Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak, the urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage, Nature tells you about it. Other disorders suggest kidney ill. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disorders kidneys. Ask your neighbor. Mayville people testify to their worth.

Charles Kennan, retired farmer, 81 Wood street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several different times within the last few years and never had them fail to do me good. My kidneys were in a mighty bad shape the first time I used them. The secretions I passed were bloody and burned terribly. My back kept me in misery during the time the attack lasted and I was feeling generally run down. I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got a couple boxes of them. This medicine reached my case at once and cured me up in good shape. I have always relied upon Doan's ever since. I use a few now and then to regulate my kidneys and they never fail me."

READ WHAT THE CRITICS SAY:

"Surpasses them all!"—Pittsburg Post.
"Perfect" — "Superlative" — Boston Post.
"Words can't do it justice" — Cincinnati Times-Star.
"Really great" — "Wonder work" — Columbus Dispatch.
Pannie Hurst, author of "Humoresque" and one of America's foremost authors, said: "I came away so thrilled and moved by this picture that I had the same feeling I experienced the first and only time I saw Sarah Bernhardt. I didn't want to go home, but to walk miles and miles under the spell of what I had seen. I may seem a bit superlative in my appreciation of this film, but to me it amounts to a climax in the entire history of the screen. Last night marked a birthday! The eighth must had come of age. Mr. Ingram, Miss Mathis, Mr. Ibanez, everyone in fact connected with the masterpiece, is to be congratulated to weave that enormous story into a tapestry the size of a motion picture screen, and at the same time to keep its integrity of form, purpose and beauty in artistry raised to the nth power. I'm a rather querulous picture-goer, not half satisfied with conditions, but seeing 'The Four Horsemen' has renewed my faith in the enormous potentialities of the screen."

A HORSEMAN

New York Letter by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York — Vice president of great banks and trust companies in New York have come to be so numerous to come in flocks, as it were—that the following story from the South Carolina golf links is getting entire appreciation here. Two men fell in with each other playing on those links last week, according to a letter from another New Yorker there, and found that they were both from this city. They got to arguing about some financial question and disagreed violently. Finally one drew himself up and said, "I ought to know what I'm talking about. I'm vice president of the Guaranty Trust Company." "Is that so?" replied the other. "So am I." And he was.

We've had jewels from European royalty, tapestries from bankrupt monarchies and art treasures from everywhere delivered into the possession of this country since the war. But not until the other day were we asked to take any royal elephants. Somehow elephants don't seem offhand to be the singing a Fannie Brice song and Fannie Brice reading a scene from De-classe. That star of soldier comedians, Charles Lawrence, had been added to the "gang."

—NY—

I'll wager that not even Los Angeles can beat this! The first visible masculinely-worn straw hat of the season of 1922 made its appearance downtown the other day. No one succeeded in identifying him, although there were all sorts of rumors — that he was a bootlegger in a new badge of the order, that he had lost a bet on his New Year's resolutions, and everything else the mind of the unimaginative city man could conjecture. But he passed serenely through Rector street undisturbed and with all appearance of being unselfconscious.

—NY—

The news that Dockstader's minstrels again may take the road is one of the ripples of excitement along Broadway. Harland Dixon, who is now one of the dancers in "Good Morning, Dearie," and who spent his early career with Dockstader, is all ready to pack up and catch the train with the troupe if the story proves true, and so are a good many other singers and dancers whose audiences have forgotten that they ever paraded the streets in blackface.

—NY—

Elsie Janis is back with us and with her "gang." It is the same "gang" of soldier singers and comedians which she got together during the war, but now their uniforms are laid away and they still make good with their voices and their acting. Miss Janis has doubled the number of chorus girls with the show to make up for the lack of military atmosphere. Her "imitations" are almost cleverer than ever, particularly that of Ethel Barrymore.

—NY—

People do spend their week-ends in all sorts of queer places and ways, but I am sure August Schmerberger, 122 Franklin street, is establishing a precedent. He is spending his in jail. Five days he is out and goes about his business and to his home. Then every week-end he hops down and goes to jail. He is to do this until he has spent altogether 30 days behind the bars. He was arrested for flirting, and when his wife appeared in his behalf and said that even if he did flirt, she and the children needed his earnings and that after all he didn't take time from his work to flirt, the judge made this little week-end arrangement.

—NY—

Never, probably, in all its history did Manhattan Island ever see such a chose as tore across its breadth the other day. A steer got loose from the slaughter house of Joseph Stern and Son, and all the policemen and motorists and small boys along the streets were unable to stop him until he had completely crossed Manhattan, from Eleventh avenue to First.

HO WTHEY GET THAT WAY.

"What's the connection between long hair on a man and eccentricity?" asked Williams.

"I don't knw," said Jackson, "but I've often wondered if they wore long hair because they're eccentric or whether they get eccentric by wearing their hair long."

REASAN WHY.

"Don't you always clean up on Saturday night for Sunday?" asked the unmarried man.

"No; my wife saves me the trouble and cleans me out every Saturday," answered the married man.

OFFICERS DESTROY FIVE BARRELS MASH

Deputy Sheriff and West Union Marshal Failed To Get the Owner.

West Union, Ohio, Jan. 27. — Deputy Sheriff A. H. Meeker and Marshal D. N. Willman made a moonshine raid in Jefferson township last Thursday afternoon and returned to West Union with about two gallons of White Mule but without its owner, who succeeded in giving them leg bail.

The scene of the raid was on the headwaters of Haw Fork, Churn Creek precinct. In an old delapidated building on a section of land said to belong to a party in Cincinnati, the officers found part of a dismantled still, five barrels of peach mash and several bottles of the finished product. The mash was poured out of the barrels by the two officers.

The owner of the still, who came out of the building just as the officers approached, took to his heels and made his escape.

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn. — "Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help other women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past." — Mrs. E. T. Galloway, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain.

If you find hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.

MURDER OF WEALTHY MAN IN NEGRO HOME PROBED.

Gallipolis, O., Jan. 27. — Investigation of the death of Clayton Tallman, wealthy cattle dealer of Beech Hill, W. Va., whose mutilated body was found in the smoldering ruins of the home of Mrs. Mathew Brooks, negro, here yesterday, was begun today by the police and by H. W. Cherrington, county prosecutor.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain.

If you find hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.
